FAN FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE

1 :: The Terrapin gymnastics team enjoys spending time with fans and especially signing autographs for aspiring gymnasts at post-meet get-togethers.

TRAVELING IN STYLE

2 :: The Terps gymnastics team travels to and from meets within driving distance in style in the luxury of the University of Maryland buses.

END OF AN ERA

3 :: The 2009 season will mark the end of a successful era for Maryland gymnatics. Head coach Bob Nelligan announced last summer that he will be retiring after this, his 31st season at the helm of the Terrapin program.

TERRAPIN GYMNASTICS: IT'S NOT A PROGRAM, IT'S A FAMILY

4 :: Unity is the key to the success of a team. Maryland gymnastics is not just your average collegiate program. It's a family, from the coaching staff to the student-athletes to alumnae. Once a Terp ... Always a Terp!

EAGL HONORS

5 :: The Maryland gymnastics program has earned its share of conference awards since helping form the East Atlantic Gymnastics League (EAGL) in 1995. Head coach Bob Nelligan was named the league's coach of the year in 1999 and four Terps have been named the EAGL's Outstanding Rookie Gymnast. Perhaps even more impressive is that Maryland gymnasts have been named the EAGL's Scholar Athlete of the Year five times, including Gretchen Kittelberger in 2008.

PLACE TO BE

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2007, 86 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 21st, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical Sciences each had specialties listed among the top 25 in the nation.

High-tech, engineering, and service industries thrive in close proximity to the campus, offering a wide spectrum of internships, work-study opportunities and career choices for students. And, the campus is surrounded by the dynamic cultural opportunities that only a major metropolitan area can provide.

Whether your focus is the sciences or the humanities, a small-town atmosphere or a metropolitan feel, the University of Maryland offers a wide range of educational and cultural opportunities.

There truly is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park.

TESTUDO:
TALE OF THE TOP SHELL

Testudo is Maryland's one-of-a-kind mascot ... a Diamondback turtle, native to the Chesapeake Bay.

Dr. H.C. Byrd, the legendary football coach who later became University President, recommended the Diamondback as mascot in 1932 in response to the student newspaper's search for an "official" leader. The school paper was in fact already called The Diamondback.

The Class of 1933 gave as its graduation gift a permanent bronzed version that presides over McKeldin Mall to this day. In 1935, the student yearbook, The Reveille, changed its name to The Terrapin. Newpapers quickly shortened Terrapin to Terp for headline writing ease and the name was here to stay.

SEASON OUTLOOK

JUNIOR-LADEN SQUAD HOPES TO BUILD OFF LATE-SEASON MOMENTUM

Head coach Bob Nelligan enters his 31st and final season at the helm of the Maryland gymnastics program well-aware of the talent his battle-tested squad possesses heading into its 2009 campaign.

Nelligan, who recently announced his intentions to retire following the 2009 season, watched his young squad develop steadily throughout last season, peaking at just the right time to accumulate each of its team-high event scores during the decisive month of March. That late-season success culminated with an improved finish at the 2008 EAGL Championships on March 29 and a strong showing by four individuals qualifiers at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships two weeks later.

Now the longtime coach and his staff hope that momentum carries over to the 2009 season, which features a junior-laden squad and somewhat lofty expectations as Nelligan prepares to pass the proverbial head coaching torch to his son, associate head coach Brett Nelligan.

"We learned a lot about ourselves from our performance near the end of last season, and we have the talent and depth to go far this year," Bob Nelligan said. "I look forward to seeing what this team is capable of accomplishing because we set high expectations for ourselves."

The Terps' 2009 squad is comprised of just one senior, co-captain Kelsey Nelligan, who is Bob's daughter and Brett's sister. However, the team has its share of experienced upperclassmen, as it returns 10 letterwinners from a year ago. Six of those returnees are juniors in co-captain Brandi George. Michele Brenner, Allie Dama, Candice King, Margaux Meeks and Talia Tossone.

Following an impressive collective effort in 2008, that junior class is expected to provide leadership for Maryland during the 2009 season. Brenner (floor exercise), Dama (uneven bars), George (all-around) and Tossone (balance beam) each represented the Terrapins in regional competition in Gainesville, Fla, hitting seven-for-seven routines.

BRANDI GEORGE

The same quartet also achieved first team All-EAGL status in their respective specialty events, with George claiming first team honors for all-around and balance beam, as well as second team for vault, uneven bars and floor exercise. George's vault score of 9.850 during the EAGL Championships tied for the 15th-best in school history.

"That class has been producing standout performers for us ever since they arrived on campus," Bob Nelligan said. "They form the core of our team, and we expect continued success from them this season."

One year behind the Terps juniors, another class stands poised for breakout seasons following productive freshmen campaigns. Sophomores Abbey Adams, Kaitlin Joseph, Kelsey McDermid, Lisa Reifschneider and Alyssa Valbert each had their moments in 2008 and will be called upon for greater contributions during the upcoming seaosn.

A pair of newcomers. Becca Pang (Honolulu, Hawaii) and Kyra Phillips (Murrieta, Calif.) represent the Terps' freshman class. Both demonstrated their potential during the 2008 Junior Olympic National Championships in June, placing in the nation's top-20 in multiple events at the weekend-long meet in Kissimmee, Fla.

TALIA TOSSONE

"Recruiting has become the single biggest factor in evaluating the growth and, ultimately, the success of a program," Bob Nelligan said. "My staff and I have been fortunate enough to have secured some of the best recruits in the nation, and this year is no exception."

Brett Nelligan and assistant coach Vicki Chliszczyk return for their sixth and fourth seasons, respectively, with the Maryland staff. While Brett Nelligan undergoes preparation for assuming head coaching duties following the season, Chliszczyk continues to specialize in teaching balance beam, while also assisting with other events, routine construction and spotting, among various other duties.

"Brett and Vicki are both great technicians and are important to the success of our program," Bob Nelligan said. "I have a tremendous amount of confidence in both of them."

Suzanne Moreland and Kilee Taflinger represent two recent additions to the Maryland gymnastics staff. Moreland, the former Suzanne Sears, was a member of two NCAA Championship teams at Georgia and was a six-time All-America. She enters her first season as a volunteer assistant coach for the Terps. Taflinger serves as the team's strength and conditioning coach, having previously occupied similar roles at Louisville and Ball State. Both bring experience, enthusiasm and fresh ideas to the Terrapins.

The Terps must replace departed seniors Lindsey Bonomo and Gretchen Kittelberger. Bonomo competed in 18 events during the course of last season, and Kittelberger, who garnered Academic All-America and EAGL Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in 2008, was a solid performer on vault and balance beam and floor exercise throughout her career.

The Terps are slated to play host to six home meets during the 2009 campaign, including a regular season finale quad meet on March 14 versus Yale, Penn State and Arizona – the latter two of whom finished among the top-25 in the final 2008 national rankings.

In all, Maryland will participate in a dozen challenging meets prior to the EAGL Championships scheduled for March 21 at NC State.

"I am speaking for the staff and athletes when I say that we have a challenging schedule and believe that we will be up to the task this season," Bob Nelligan said.

Following the annual 'Red vs. Black' intra-squad meet near the end of the 2008 calendar year, the Terps kick off the upcoming season with a home meet against Kent State on Jan. 9 before taking to the road to face nationally-ranked Ohio State on Jan. 17.

A home meet with fellow EAGL member NC State and Denver on Jan. 23 precedes a quad meet on Jan. 31 hosted by reigning EAGL champion West Virginia.

The 14th annual Governor's Cup, which pits Maryland and Towson against NC State and North Carolina in a battle for state bragging rights, will be held Feb. 7 in Raleigh, N.C. That meet begins a stretch in which the Terps participate in three road meets in a span of nine days, also competing against Pittsburgh, Kent State and Central Michigan during that span.

Maryland returns to College Park for a meet against New Hampshire on Feb. 20 before traveling westward to face Iowa on Feb. 28. Home meets with Temple and league opponents North Carolina and Pittsburgh are on tap before the Terps wrap up their regular season with the highly-anticipated March 14 home quad meet.

Following the completion of the regular season, Maryland will travel to Raleigh, N.C., for the 14th annual EAGL Championships on Saturday, March 21. The Terps then hope to quallify to compete at one of the six NCAA Regional Championships sites on April 4, and subsequently advance to the NCAA Championships at the University of Nebraska on April 16-18.

HEAD COACH BOB NELLIGAN

31ST SEASON AT MARYLAND • MASSACHUSETTS '72
1999 NCAA SOUTHEAST REGION COACH OF THE YEAR

Bob Nelligan returns for his 31st and final season guiding the Maryland gymnastics program, having recently announced his intentions to retire following the 2008-09 campaign.

The face of Maryland gymnastics since 1979, Nelligan begins the season with a career mark of 478-426-4. He has achieved 18 winning seasons at Maryland and 18 NCAA regional championship appearances, earning a reputation as a passionate and caring coach with abundant energy and a positive nature.

"I'm proud of the accomplishments of the program athletically, but it's been tremendously rewarding to me to have an impact on the lives of our student-athletes in so many other ways. My tenure as a Maryland coach has been one of the most personally and professionally rewarding experiences of my life."

Affectionately referred to as 'Duke', Nelligan has garnered the respect of all his colleagues at Maryland and nationwide, and is recognized as one of the top gymnastics coaches in the country. In 1999, he was acknowledged for his contributions to collegiate gymnastics when he was honored as both the East Atlantic Gymnastics League (EAGL) Coach of the Year and Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

During his remarkable career, Nelligan has been the driving force behind the Terps' success. His love for the sport and for his athletes is unique in today's world of gymnastics.

"Duke is one of the most passionate and caring coaches I know. He absolutely loves to be in the gym teaching and coaching," said assistant coach Vicki Chliszczyk. "His energy is evident in each and every practice and the entire team knows that Duke will be there to support them in any situation. Duke knows how to make each practice exciting and fun!"

Nelligan has witnessed and adapted to the numerous changes that collegiate gymnastics has undergone throughout his tenure. As gymnasts have gotten stronger, so has Nelligan's recruiting of the top gymnasts in the country. During Nelligan's career with the Terps, his team has qualified for the NCAA Southeast Region Championships 14 times since entering that region in 1983-84, including six consecutive times from 1983 to '89 and four consecutive times from 1998-2001. In recent years, the Terps have moved closer to qualifying for the NCAA Championship meet.

Maryland's level of success is only achieved through a strict regiment of training and conditioning, which Nelligan implements on a year-round basis. Nelligan is constantly striving to be the best and expects his gymnasts to do the same, both in athletics and academics. Last season, Maryland had five All-EAGL first team selections and three All-EAGL second team selections. Since 1996, Maryland has had five teams finishes in the top three at the EAGL Championships.

But the Terps' success under Nelligan has come in the classroom as well as the gym. In 2008, 13 Terrapin gymnasts earned All-EAGL academic honors, including Scholar-Athlete of the Year Gretchen Kittelberger. Gymnastics has now won the President's Cup Team GPA Award four consecutive times and eight times in the history of the award. Nelligan's gymnasts also recently posted a 100-percent graduation rate.

Nelligan is responsible for ensuring this level of athletic and academic success is constantly maintained. He is the Maryland Terrapin team leader and the dedication and enthusiasm of the Terrapin gymnasts is a direct reflection of Nelligan's attitude and work ethic.

"Duke is one of the most technical coaches in all of collegiate gymnastics. His passion for the sport and support for his athletes is unrivaled. My father has done so much for me throughout my gymnastics career, it is a complete honor to be able to assist him with his," said his son Brett Nelligan, Maryland's associate head coach who will assume head-coaching duties following the 2008-09 season.

Even though his work with the gymnastics team consumes most of his time throughout the year, Nelligan still finds time to focus his energies on several other projects. He assists the Director of the Maryland Gymkana Troupe, the only touring exhibition gymnastics troupe in the country. They perform nationwide and have become a main attraction on the Maryland campus. Nelligan is also the co-founder of the Maryland Gymkana Camp and on numerous occasions has been a guest lecturer in the College of Health and Human Performance Department.

Nelligan also is a director and master staff member at the Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa., and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches, the U.S. Elite Coaches Association and the chairman of the first NACGC ethics committee. Nelligan also has taught numerous classes regarding athletics and is striving to take athletics to another level through his pioneering of a wellness program for all of the varsity athletes at Maryland. This program is currently in the process of being implemented to select track and field athletes and will ensure that athletes achieve their highest potential through the best means possible.

Originally from Braintree, Mass., Nelligan has more than 35 years of gymnastics experience. Prior to accepting the position of head coach at Maryland for the 1978-1979 season, Nelligan worked in various capacities at the Masters School in Dobbs Ferry, N.Y. From 1973 to 1978 he was a physical education instructor at the Masters School and also coached several teams, including gymnastics, lacrosse and softball. In addition to these responsibilities, Nelligan was named the Chairman of the Physical Education Department in 1975 for the Masters School. From 1972 to 1973 Nelligan coached at the Marvateens Gymnastics School in Rockville, Md., and before that was an instructor and coach at the Weymouth South School in Weymouth, Mass. Nelligan received his B.S. in physical education from the University of Massachusetts in 1971.

Nelligan and his wife, Chris, have two children; Brett and Kelsey. Brett is the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator of the Maryland gymnastics team and Kelsey is the lone senior on the team.

SIXTH YEAR AT MARYLAND • MASSACHUSETTS '03

Brett Nelligan enters his sixth season at Maryland having recently assumed the role of associate head coach of the Terrapin gymnastics team for the 2008-09 season. He will become the fourth head coach in the program's 34-year history beginning June 1, 2009, following the retirement of his father, Bob Nelligan.

A member of the coaching staff since July 2003, Nelligan is responsible for coaching vault and tumbling. In 2008, the vault was among the highest average scoring events for the team. He is also relied on for his spotting abilities that are crucial to the team's success.

Head coach Bob Nelligan said, "During his five-year tenure, vault and floor have been our most stable events and those events are where we posted some of our highest totals." Nelligan also describes Brett as a technician, "He understands the mechanisms of where the sport is going. With Brett you are seeing the emergence of a national coach."

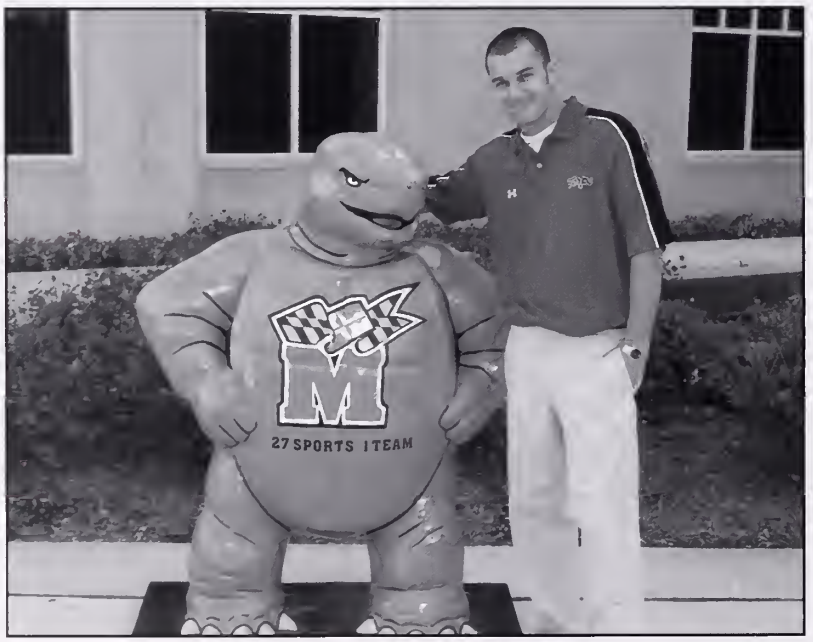
In addition to coaching, Nelligan is credited with securing several of the Terps' most talented recruiting classes ever. Incoming freshmen Kyra Phillips and Rebecca Pang both performed well at the 2008 Junior Olympic National Championships, and the larger 2007 freshman class won a combined six Junior Olympic national championship titles.

Nelligan's recruiting success helped him earn the title of recruiting coordinator in May 2006. His father, head coach Bob Nelligan, believes what makes Brett a good recruiter is his believability, "He is selling something that he believes in, his father and the Maryland gymnastics system. He also goes out recruiting with a plan to bring in the highest ranked athletes."

A 2003 graduate of the University of Massachusetts with a degree in sport management, Nelligan competed three years of gymnastics for the Minutemen, serving as co-captain one year. An accomplished gymnast himself, Brett regularly made lineup on vault, floor exercise, high bar and pommel horse. On vault, he placed in the top 10 at the NCAA Championships and third at the ECAC Championships. He was also an Academic All-American and aided his team in winning two ECAC Championships. A versatile athlete, Brett turned to diving after the UMass gymnastics program was cancelled, and witnessed the team achieve its third straight Atlantic-10 title.

In recent years, Nelligan has spent his summers coaching at several gymnastics camps, including the University of Georgia, University of New Hampshire, University of Arizona, University of Rhode Island, University of Maryland Gymkana Gymnastics Camp, Woodward Gymnastics Camp, and at the U.S. Gymnastics Training Center in Holyoke, Mass.

Brett currently resides in College Park, Maryland, and enjoys the opportunity to work with his father, head coach Bob Nelligan, and his sister Kelsey, a senior on the Terps gymnastics team.



VICKI CHLISZCZYK

ASSISTANT COACH • FOURTH YEAR AT MARYLAND
YORK UNIVERSITY '01

Vicki Chliszczyk returns for her fourth season as assistant coach of the Maryland gymnastics team. Chliszczyk primarily coaches balance beam, but also assists on all events, routine construction and spotting. Some of her other duties include selecting team apparel and coordinating travel arrangements.

In her first three seasons, Chliszczyk is credited with raising both the beam line-up's confidence and level of difficulty. In 2008, the team's progression on the balance beam continued, and Chliszczyk's mentoring of Talia Tossone helped enable the Terps gymnast to post the team's highest individual beam score (9.900) since 2004. That performance came one season after balance beam posted the highest event total of the 2007 season with a score of 48.925 in a quad meet against New Hampshire, Temple and James Madison.

"Vicki has been a tremendous asset to our team in many ways, but especially her contributions to our beam team," head coach Bob Nelligan said. "Our work on the balance beam has come a long way in large part to her efforts in that regard."

Coach Nelligan has seen Chliszczyk continue to progress as a coach since her arrival in College Park in 2005. However, the long-time coach noticed his assistant's talent right away during her first season at the helm. The elder Nelligan initially described Chliszczyk's biggest contribution to the team as unseen; "She quickly gained the team's respect, because of her dedication, fairness and support. The team knows she is pulling for them."

Chliszczyk studied with the Ontario Gymnastics Federation and completed an intensive national coaching certificate program. The in-depth training system teaches coaches how to develop athlete's skills and adequately spot them. Coach Nelligan believes Chliszczyk has done an excellent job transitioning into Maryland gymnastics, "She has adapted well with our system and will continue to grow with it while adding her own ideas. She is a teacher and knows how to mold gymnasts."

Chliszczyk spends her summers working at the prestigious Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Pennsylvania. She has been one of the gymnastics program directors for the last five years and affiliated with the program since 1996. Some of her duties include scheduling, coaching and conducting clinics to visiting coaches. At Woodward, she manages a gymnastics coaching staff of 30 coaches and over 3000 gymnasts, including many at the elite level.

A 12-year member of the Milton Springers gymnastics club in Milton, Ontario, Canada, Chliszczyk, competed in the Provinical Championships for 10 consecutive years (1989-2000). The Milton Springers Club dedicated an award in her name, "The Vicki Chliszczyk Award for Dedication", given at the end of the year to the most dedicated athlete.

A native of Ontario, Canada, Chliszczyk earned a bachelor's degree in Philosophy at York University in 2001. Her parents and brother (Chris) reside in Ontario, Canada.

2008 SEASON RECAP

YOUNG SQUAD PROVIDES REASONS FOR OPTIMISM FOR 2009

The 2008 Maryland gymnastics team began the season with a young, sophomore-laden squad that developed steadily throughout the campaign, peaking at the right time to post many of its top team and individual scores near the season's end.

Led by a quartet of sophomore regional qualifiers in Michele Brenner, Allie Dama, Brandi George and Talia Tossone, the Terrapins were at their best during the month of March. The team notched its season-high total score of 194.250 during its March 15th quad meet against Michigan, Pittsburgh and Temple, as Dama and George fueled a season-best 48.925 team score on the bars.

That peformance preceded a team season-high score of 48.700 on the beam during the regular-season finale meet on March 21 thanks in large part to the efforts of George and Tossone.

Virtually the entire team turned in strong performances the following week during 2008 Eastern Atlantic Gymnastics League (EAGL) Championships en route to a fifth-place team finish. During that meet in Morgantown, W.Va., the Terps managed team season-highs in both the vault (48.775) and floor exercise (49.000), tying for the team's best finish since 2004.

Two weeks later Brenner, Dama, George and Tossone represented Maryland at the NCAA Southeast Regional Championships in Gainesville, Fla., hitting seven-for-seven on routines.

But the Terps' late-season success did not come without a tremendous amount of hard work throughout the 2008 campaign, the 30th season under head coach Bob Nelligan.

The Terps opened the season by playing host to Ohio State and West Virginia in consecutive dual meets, narrowly falling to the Mountaineers, one of the top teams in the EAGL. A second-place finish in a quad meet at Texas Woman's on Jan. 27 saw senior captain Gretchen Kittelberger earn a season-best score on the beam (9.700) and freshman Abbey Adams do likewise in the floor exercise (9.825) in just her third collegiate meet.

In a battle for state bragging rights, Maryland knocked off host Towson in the four-team Governor's Cup on Feb. 1, as freshman Kaitlin Joseph scored her season-best mark in the floor exercise (9.750). The Terps' team score of 192.925 the following week during a dual meet at Michigan State marked the team's best overall performance from the season's opening two months.

League play kicked into full gear when Maryland played host to George Washington before defeating New Hampshire in a dual meet on Feb. 24. George enjoyed the team's best individual all-around score of the season (39.275) against the Wildcats, and Tossone tallied a season-best 9.900 in the floor exercise during the same meet.

March commenced with a quad meet at EAGL foe North Carolina during which both of Maryland's senior notched impressive performances for the injury-plauged squad. Kittelberger had a season-high score in the vault (9.825), and fellow senior Lindsey Bonomo did likewise in both the vault and the beam.

ALLIE DAMA

A quad meet at George Washington on March 9 preceded the three-meet stretch from March 15 to March 29 during which Maryland produced its team season-high score in every event. During that streak, eight different gymnasts (Adams, Brenner, Dama, George, Kittelberger, Tossone, Margaux Meeks and Lisa Reifschneider) accounted for at least one individual season-best score.

Maryland saved it best for last, as Adams, George, Kittelberger and Tossone each notched at least one individual season-high mark during the EAGL Championships on March 29. The total team performance enabled the Terps to avenge a regular-season loss to George Washington while turning in their second-best total team score of the season (193.375). George's vault score of 9.850 at the league meet tied for the 15th-best individual mark in school history.

Although Maryland did not qualify as a team for the NCAA regionals, Brenner (floor exercise), Dama (uneven bars), Geroge (all-around) and Tossone (balance beam) each punched their tickets by virtue of their strong individual performances. It marked the second consecutive trip to regionals for George and Tossone, while Brenner and Dama qualified for the first time.

Several Terps garnered posteason accolades. Kittelberger claimed one of the EAGL's four yearly awards when she was named 2008 Scholar-Athlete of the Year one season after she recevied the same honor. The senior later earned Academic All-America and COSIDA Academic All-District honors as well.

Four Maryland gymnasts earned All-EAGL honors led by George, who was named to the first team for all-around and balance beam, as well as the second team for vault, uneven bars and floor exercise.

Brenner (floor exercise), Dama (uneven bars) and Tossone (balance beam) also were named first team all-league honorees at the EAGL awards banquet following the end of the 2008 regular season.

BONNIE BERNSTEIN

FROM MARYLAND GYMNASTICS TO ABC SPORTS/ESPN

"Receiving a scholarship was, in itself, an honor; but more important, it allowed me to spend valuable time participating in internships that prepared me for my career, instead of working my way through school. That scholarship is still paying dividends, years after my time in College Park."

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the mos successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whos accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue i Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homelan security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selecte for national leadership and are making news. Many recent majo faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthe our homeland security endeavors—centers for research o agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freigh transportation security; behavioral and social analyses o terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advance world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center fo Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also hom to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennia source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents o the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home nationa championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than an university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, an with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is movin aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighte than any other in its history.

DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
10TH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 15TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 16 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annually and the $51 million debt which her administration inherited has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlete welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 million upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow with several Terrapin student-athletes at the annual Welcome Back Picnic.

- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.

- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in four Final Fours in the past six years and won the NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied ... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently ... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools ... to work hard and work smart ... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success ... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

OUR TALENTED TEAM KEEPS MANY TERPS AND THEIR FANS IN THE GAME.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Laura Meckley works with the Maryland gymnastics team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.
